

Questions to get you started on a podcast

What would you name your episode?

Give a three-sentence summary of the focus for your episode.

Who do you see as the audience for your podcast?

What is the one thing you want listeners to remember from your episode?

[If including interviews] Who will you interview and how do they relate to the topic?

List three questions you will ask your interviewees.

What kind of background info have you found that relates to your focus?

If applicable, what kind of music or archival sound would be relevant for your episode?